PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates,

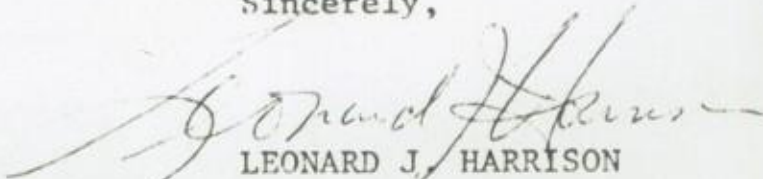

In this, the year of your graduation from Midwood High School, America has elected its 40th President, Ronald W. Reagan. President Reagan in his inaugural address has dedicated his administration to a "NEW BEGINNING".

In order to underline this new beginning for our nation, which has been so troubled during the past 20 years, much of the inaugural activities emphasized "Young America". The emphasis was correct, because whatever America will become in the future will be directly attributed to our young people, that is, your generation. There are great problems ahead to be solved. Our economy is extremely troubled. Justice and equal opportunity for all within our society is still allusive. The quest for a dignified and just world peace is of the utmost importance, if mankind is to survive. These are not problems to shrink from, but to accept as exhilarating challenges and patriotic duty.

The generation that will inherit these challenges must possess courage, dedication, imagination, compassion and the will to overcome. I cannot of course, speak with first hand knowledge of all the young people who will this year be graduating throughout our nation, but I can attest to the fact that the 1981 Midwood graduating class has the aforementioned qualities in great abundance. Therefore, if the rest of the nation's youth is anything like the Class of '81 our nation will have a new and great beginning.

I wish you the best, in a world that will require your best.

Sincerely,

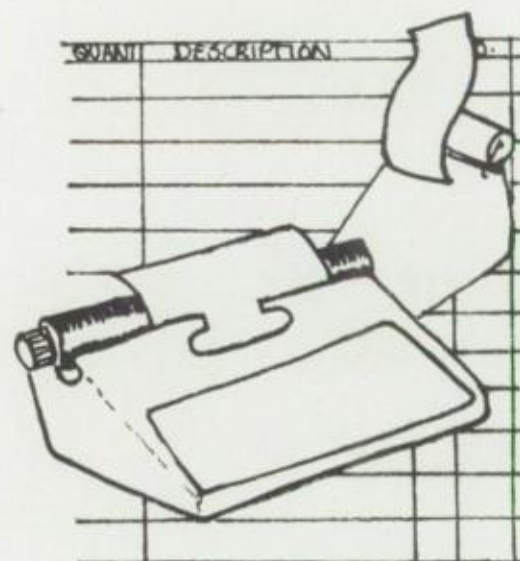

LEONARD J. HARRISON

C.O.S.A.

What is C.O.S.A.? The man behind the scenes is Robert Bruckner. Midwood's Coordinator of Student affairs also serves as our public relations man. As Midwoods ombudsman, Mr. Bruckner represents the students when meeting with Mr. Harrison and the members of the faculty, as well as representing the faculty when meeting with the students.

Some of the many roles filled by Mr. Bruckner are: overseer of all extra-curricular activities, assists in activities run by other faculty advisers, approves new activities and runs activities such as SING. He also advises and supervises fund raising, trips and activities such as the S.G.O.

What is C.O.S.A.? Robert Bruckners' outstanding job that has given Midwood its excellence in student unity.

Michelle Rose

CITY OF MIDWOOD

Senior President Tara Burnett and Senior Vice President Adam Bernstein. "It has been a hard, exhausting, frustrating, exciting, exasperating experience. But it has also been great."

Comptroller Jolinda Mester. "Student government has been a crazy and wonderful experience and I loved every nutty moment. BEST OF LUCK."

Mayor Diane Barth. "Being Mayor of the City of Midwood has been a challenging, frustrating, and a most rewarding experience."

MR. MATHEW MANDERY

INSTITUTE

It has been said that what is worth doing is worth doing well.

The MEDICAL SCIENCE INSTITUTE program at Midwood High School illustrates just such a pursuit. For those able to maintain a vigorous and demanding schedule an enriched and varied academic curriculum lies ahead. This program is only open to a limited number of eighth and ninth grade students from schools throughout Brooklyn. Students participating in the program eventually complete a minimum of five years in science, three years of mathematics in addition to other required and elective courses in the Humanities and Practical Arts. Pupils have also been involved in research programs during the summer, functioning as members of research teams in laboratories at Downstate Medical Center, Brooklyn College, L.I.U. and the Chief Medical Examiners Office. A lectures seminar series has been conducted by well known scientists and physicians. The Medical Science Institutes Guidance Counselor is Dr. Salvatore Grande. Its Coordinator is Ms. Josephine Pignato. Mr. David Kiefer is Assistant Principal of Science. and Mr. Mathew Mandery is Assistant Principal of Mathematics.

The college office functions as a vital department in Midwood. Mr. Sarney, the college advisor, gives students the opportunity to consult with him privately to discuss which colleges to apply to, as well as financial aid information. Mr. Sarney is assisted by two co-workers who help to schedule appointments, as well as helping to file off our applications.

In the past, Midwood students had been able to submit as many applications as they wished. This has been the first year that we have had to make do with a minimum of 5 private college applications. The minimum of 4 SUNY and 4 CUNY colleges that Midwood students had previously been allowed to apply to still remains. Mr. Sarney blames the 5 private college problem on the fact that with so few people working to process the applications, no other choice exists but to limit the amount of applications. No matter, Midwood students will get accepted to a great majority of the colleges to which they will have applied despite the 5 application minimum.

Barbara Schwartz

COLLEGE NIGHT

Once again, Midwood's annual College Night came up on Oct. 20 and with tremendous success. Almost all spokespeople for the college committed to attend showed up and the student turn out was also adequate. Not only did Midwood students attend but students from Murrow and Madison also made an appearance. Mr. Harrison was there to welcome guests and Mr. Sarney, the college advisor, was also there to add his additional knowledge of after graduation options. The purpose of College Night is to provide some enlightenment for prospective students wishing to go to college. It is the hope of the Midwood staff that all of those who will graduate this year and who are able to go to college, will take advantage of the opportunity and go.

SPARK

Spark is; a place to go when you feel down and you need someone to talk to, a place where you feel needed because people ask for your advice. Try Spark!! That's the place to be.

Jackie Ildefonso

Spark is a place to relax and forget all your problems. You meet friends there, learn a lot and, in my opinion it is very educational, while being fun at the same time.

Marie Morilus

I think Spark is a very interesting group. You get to talk about anything you have on your mind.

Debbie Morgan

Spark is a place to listen and to be listened to by friends and people you can count on.

Virginia

I like Spark because it gives you a lot of good advice and you get to help people out when they have problems.

Helen

I like Spark because it helps young people with their problems. You meet new friends who can help you when you're in trouble.

Melida

Spark is a wonderful rap group it helps you with your problems and shows you kindness and understanding.

Andrea Beckford

This is how I feel about Spark:

S is for the solution of our problems

P is for the problem solved

A is for the adventure of the group

R is for the rap sessions

K is for the kindness of the people in the group

COOPERATIVE

Co-op

Located in room 436 you can find Ms. Eunice Holder, advisor of one of the most fulfilling programs offered at Midwood High School, Co-Operative Education Program.

Co-op, as it is often called, provides work experience by integrating supervised work with the student's academic courses. Participants in the program are paid according to their skill and expertise; minimum wage is the base pay however, students can earn more.

Co-op is comprised of a Junior and a Senior class. Both classes have two groups, an A and B group. Work and study are alternated on a weekly basis; one group attending school, one attending work. This occurs during the course of the ten month school year. During the summer the student has the option to work or not. If he/she chooses to work, depending upon the group, he/she will have either July or August as their vacation month.

Students may work in jobs connected with business, government or industry. Among the CoOperating members that provide employment are the large department stores, advertising agencies and banks.

Like other programs Co-op can be a pleasant or unpleasant experience. For myself it has been extremely pleasant. But as Ms. Holder has often said, "Co-op is an experience; whether it is a good experience or a bad experience depends on the individual."

I'd also like to take this time and space to say, "Congradulations to the Cooperative Education Program on its 50th Anniversary."

The start of the last decade of the century brings with it a shift in the location of our Senior Prom. — from the Playboy Club to the Tavern On The Green. This move has been accomplished through the hard work and dedicated efforts of the committee members headed by Mike Dufan, student government leaders including Tara Burnett and Adam Bernstein, and our principal, Mr. Harrison. Our first annual prom promises to be the best one yet. Many thanks to all!

BEST WISHES TO THE CLASS OF 1981!

MOCK TRIAL

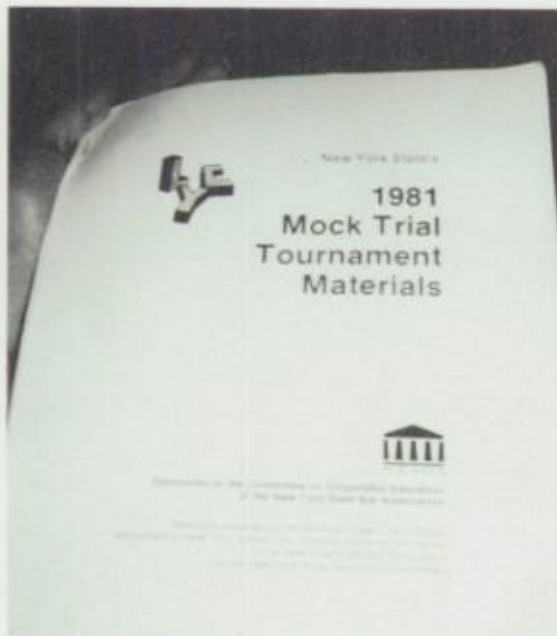

The Mock Trial Tournament is a competitive event held among the New York State High Schools. The court procedures during the mock trial are the same as in a regular trial, with the exception that the judges in the mock trials are United States attorneys, not real federal court judges.

As individuals, each of the students plays different roles, either as attorneys or witnesses. The students who played the parts of attorneys had to present their direct and cross-examination throughout the trial, just as the students who played the part of the witnesses had to answer all the questions (direct from their own team, and cross from the opposition) skillfully and intelligently. The questions which were decided upon to be asked were created by the entire team.

As an experience, the Mock Trial Tournament served to be very beneficial. I know for myself, it challenged my skills of being able to think fast on my feet, and my ability to handle tension and criticism. In expressing the feelings of the other members of the team, I think I can say that they enjoyed the Mock Trial Tournament immensely and also learned a lot about court procedure and decorum. I would also like to say that we all worked as a team and were very dedicated. If it weren't for total team effort, then the Midwood High School Mock Trial Team could not have made it to the quarter finals in Midwood's first year in the Mock Trial Tournament.

DRAMA WORKSHOP

EPILOG

EDITORS-IN-CHIEF

Each year a group of students get together to put out Midwood's Epilog, hoping that everyone will like it and that it turns out better than the last one. As Editors-in-Chief, Norman and I believe that with our staff and advisor, Mr. Mazza, we have reached this goal. Thousands of pictures were examined, over one hundred pages proofread and long meetings held.

Much has happened this past year. John Lennon was killed; the Iranian hostages were released after 444 days in captivity, and we have elected a new president. Epilog may not reflect these events but it does reflect Midwood "happenings": victories in sports, our first Mock Trial, season concerts, publications, Sing, graduation and more. These events may not read like national news, but their occurrence is as important because they happened to each of us and have deeply affected our lives.

Curtain calls demand applause. I certainly believe that applause should go out to Mr. Mazza who constantly supported all our efforts, as well as to the core who worked diligently.

An undertaking such as Epilog requires mutual cooperation from all facets of the school, and we extend our appreciation to those who cooperated so well.

Stephanie Lainoff
Editor-in-Chief 1981

As editors of Epilog, Stephanie and I have come to learn, as past editors have learned that it isn't an easy job. I'm quite sure as a new advisor Mr. Mazza has learned the same.

This year's job as editors took on more responsibilities because of the appointment of a new advisor. The return of Betty, Sonya, Barbara and Kathie from last years staff helped ease the responsibilities. Along with their return and the addition of Georgia and Joy, we were able to work well with the patient Mr. Mazza, who was so willing to let Stephanie and I pass on our ideas and knowledge of creating Epilog for Midwood seniors.

Creating Epilog takes concerned, conscientious and very dedicated students. It also takes time, effort and lots of hard work.

At this time I'd like to thank those who contributed a little extra- thanks to Eddie, Gabriel and Jeanne who did excellent photography. Thanks to the "Core" - Georgia, Joy, Barbara, Sonya, Betty and Kathie who have supported Stephanie and I all year. Also thanks to Continental Studios and Steve Greenlick of Josten Yearbook Company who year after year continues to help make Epilog the outstanding publication it is.

Norman A. Fischer, Jr.
Editor-in-chief

The publication of a yearbook involves a lot of planning, patience, work and fun. The staff of Epilog 1981 has produced this edition in hope that it will bring many happy memories of Midwood High School.

I wish to thank my staff, especially my "core" who have given their time and energy. Thank you: Stephanie, Norman, Kathie, Sonya, Betty, Barbara, Joy, Georgia. Also, many thanks to my photographers, artists, typists, layout staff and homeroom representatives who have given of their time and effort.

Hornets topple Tilden for City title

We're No. 1... Again!

BY HOWARD SCHIFFMAN

The city football championship has become a Midwood tradition as the Hornets captured their second straight ISAL B Division Championship by topping the Tilden Blue Devils, 14-2, on November 22.

Four days later, a Midwood pep rally lauding the Hornets' valiant efforts during their championship season, raised the students' enthusiasm to a higher pitch. The euphoric mood which permeated the auditorium was further enhanced by the spirited cheerleaders, twirlers and boosters, who set the tone for the frenzied jubilation that followed.

"We had to pay Tilden back for our loss to them earlier in the season," reflected Jason Shangold, who filled in admirably for starting quarterback Todd Lepkofker, sidelined with a wrist injury.

On the Hornets' first possession, running back Brett Joyce crashed through the Tilden secondary on a 53 yard sprint. Shangold capped the next drive by diving into the end zone on a one yard plunge.

Tilden tried to answer the score, however kicker Owen Gill's 38 yard field goal attempt fell short of the crossbar.

flashy running on the part of Shangold was responsible for the Hornets' second touchdown. As the 5'10" senior dropped back to pass, he found his receivers tightly covered. With no other choice but to run, Shangold escaped his would-be tacklers, resulting in a 62 yard scoring spree.

Superblocking by linemen Steve Cromas and Vic Spadaro paved the way for Shangold's gallop. "There was a three man blitz and I had no time to pass," recalls Shangold. "My blocking was great and I couldn't have scored without them."

The Blue Devil's only score came in the third quarter as Tilden defensive back Tony Samuel blocked an Al Rosu punt which bounced in the end zone for a safety.

One of Midwood's greatest accomplishments was containing Tilden's star running back Owen Gill, holding him to a scant 39 yards rushing for the game. Gill ran for over 1,000 yards during the regular season against defenses that were keying on him, but was effectively immobilized by Midwood's front wall.

Trouncing August Martin 26-6 on November 8, the Hornets kicked off their championship drive in quest of another title.

Defensive tackle Chris Taylor recovered a Martin fumble late in the first quarter, returning it 37 yards for a Midwood touchdown. Advancing the Hornets' domineering ways, senior fullback Dwayne Rogers bulldozed his way past the goal line on a 3 yard surge. Joyce cushioned the lead as he swept left for an 8 yard touchdown run.

Following a scoreless third quarter, Shangold opened up the fourth period of play by speeding past Martin defen-

The production of each issue of ARGUS represents the culmination of intense preparation and year-long planning on the part of the dedicated and talented young journalists who comprise its staff. Long hours of concentrated work are expended in gathering and organizing information, as well as translating the results into a smooth-flowing newspaper.

Although the reading of an issue of ARGUS may take no longer than an hour, the numerous and varied tasks required for its final production cannot be measured by a time reference, but rather by an infinite devotion on the part of the staff. Always in quest for constant improvement while maintaining a high standard of professionalism, this year's editors have initiated many innovative ideas, ranging from layout design and graphic illustrations, to creative feature articles and timely editorials, grappling not only with problems of students but of life itself.

The assigning of responsibilities to a large staff and the required adherence to deadlines, necessarily involves the coping with differing temperaments and sensitivities. Nevertheless, the success of handling this delicate balance without alienation of my peers, while at the same time exacting the high standards of journalistic excellence, has proven for me to be a challenging and most gratifying experience.

The success of any team depends on the efforts of all its members and their willingness to work harmoniously. I am grateful for the guidance and strong support provided by our faculty advisor, Martin P. Kopelowitz, whose inspiration only helped to enhance that team effort. While there are no plaques or awards for the unselfish dedication and loyalty of the ARGUS staff, they do have my everlasting gratitude and appreciation.

MIDWOOD HIGH SCHOOL 1941

MIDWOOD HIGH SCHOOL Borough of Brooklyn

In the midst of the old Colonial section in the Flatbush area of Brooklyn, known as Midwood, is a new and beautiful four-story educational landmark, - the Midwood High School which was opened for the reception of pupils on Monday, February 3, 1941. Massive, Ionic columns grace the entrance to this inspiring example of Georgian Colonial architecture. The graceful tower rising from the center of the edifice gives the building a character distinctive among high schools in New York. For the design of this school we are indebted to Mr. Eric Kebbon, Architect, Superintendent of School Buildings. Design and Construction for the City of New York.

Midwood High School has been placed on property formerly a part of the Brooklyn College grounds. This plot was relinquished by the Board of Higher Education to the city for use by the Board of Education so that a high school could be erected to add to the educational facilities of the neighborhood. The school adjoins the College Campus and carries out its style of Colonial architecture.

Midwood High School is the last word in school design and school facilities. It provides for 3,100 students on a single session, in seventy-three rooms including four science laboratories as well as biology, physics and chemistry rooms, a model apartment, a home nursing room, an art weaving room, a sewing room, four art rooms, two business machine rooms, four typewriting rooms, a general shop and a special arts and crafts shop, and special facilities for the Music and English Departments.

There are two large gymnasiums in separate wings, one for boys and one for girls, with health training rooms and physical examination rooms adjacent.

The classrooms of this building are of most recent design, simplified in arrangement of blackboards, and introducing metal enclosures over the radiators. They present a clean-cut, modern appearance. The color schemes in the classrooms and in the various other rooms in the building have been given individual attention which results in a harmonious blending of color, esthetic and restful to the eye.

The auditorium is distinctive in style, seats 900, and includes a thoroughly equipped, modern stage and an organ. It is painted in two tones of grey-white, and is lighted by tall windows on the two sides. Red velour curtains on windows and stage give a sense of color harmony and warmth.

The library is the most distinctive room in the building—a sunken room with delicately panelled walls—truly an inspiring sight and an example of the good taste of the architect.

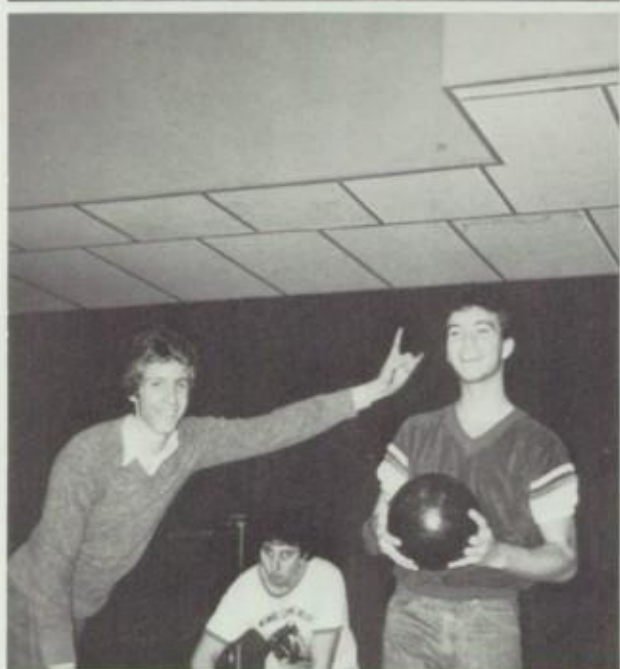

The Midwood Gallery for exhibits adds to the rich facilities of the school.

A modern cafeteria, seating 1272 at one service, equipped with tables and individual chairs and with every new device for cooking and serving, guarantees comfort, safety, and good food for the boys and girls of Midwood.

The public address system of the school makes possible radio programs in all rooms and sound film programs in the auditorium.

The cost of the building, including the part of the site acquired by the City to round out the plot adjacent to City land assigned, was $2,175,000. The improvement of the athletic field will cost approximately $50,000, and work is expected to start in the near future.

BOYS' TENNIS

Just as caviar, filet mignon and chocolate mousse are first class delicacies, so it is with the Boys' Tennis team which is the champagne of the tennis world. This year's brooklyn championship team is replete with natural talent. Smooth stroking singles sensations Steve Reichbach and Doug Dachille coupled with the electrifying doubles due of co-captains Steve Weinberger and Howie Blaustein lead the attack. It therefore comes as no surprise, boasts Netmen coach Arnie Decker, that this seasons squad will emulate its past tradition and is slated to become divisional powerhouses once again.

TWIRLERS

Carrying on the tradition of the Midwood Twirlers has been a learning experience for all. Working together has taught each of us how to grow as individuals as well as to work as one unified group.

Cheering for Midwood has created a certain pride which we all hold very deeply. As captains of the Twirlers we hope that you will always remember the fun times we shared and treasure that special Midwood pride. Thanx for everything!

START COLLEGE TWO YEARS OLDER, TWO YEARS WISER, AND $15,200 RICHER.

A lot of people who start college right after school discover they're not ready for it.

That's a good reason to think about serving two years in the Army first. And only the Army offers you a 2-year enlistment.

If you join the Veterans' Educational Assistance Program (VEAP, the money you save for college is matched two-for-one by the government. Then, qualify, the Army adds an exclusive bonus of up to $8,000 on top of that.

That's why in just two years in the Army, you could accumulate as much as $15,100 for college. (And up to $20,100 in three years.)

So you won't just be two years older when you start college. You'll also be two years wiser. and $15,200 richer.

Serve your country as you serve yourself. Call 434-

2700 and ask Staff Sergeant Marvin S. Liles your local ARMY Recruiter at 1481 Flatbush Avenue for additional information.

MAXIMUM VEAP BENEFITS

	Per Mo.	2 Yrs.	3 Yrs.	4 Yrs.
You Save:	$100	$2,400	$2,700*	$2,700
Gov't Adds 2-for-1:	$200	$4,800	$5,400	$5,400
Total:	$300	$7,200	$8,100	$8,100
Army Bonus:		$8,000	$12,000	$12,000
Total Benefits:		$15,200	$20,100	$20,100

ONLY IN THE ARMY

*Maximum individual contribution in the program.

Certain 4-year enlistments can get you as much as $24,100 for college.

We'll Miss You!

The Marines.

One good man 6 weeks better.

After just six weeks at boot camp, he's better physically and mentally. He's gained strength, stamina, agility—and the self-confidence that comes with meeting tough challenges. After boot camp—when he's earned the title U.S. Marine and the pride that goes with it—he has a great future ahead of him. Good pay, a rewarding career job, opportunities for vocational and college education, and travel too. If you're a good man, who would like to be even better, call us.

The Few. The Proud. The Marines.

PERSONAL ADS

Dear Lorraine,
Hello, from a secret admirer.

Hinde, Mom, Dad - Thanks for everything,
EVERYTHING!!!!!! You're all the greatest! Love Erica alias "The Troublemaker"

To M. C. "Stop bumping into me." To M.L. "Wake up sleepy head." To N.A. "Excuse the smoke; COUGH, COUGH. Guess who - A.S.

Erica: Love and luck to you forever. We couldn't be more proud! Love mom, Dad and Hinde.

All our love to Debbie Schizer from Mimi, Dave, Dad and Mom

To Deb, Ros, Tina, Elen, Moe and Andro, I'm glad we were all friends and I hope it stays that way forever.
Luv ya's Maureen.

To Sylvia, Thank Heavens it's over - Congratulations!
Love You - Hope Padilla.

Russ,
If when you read this ad, you are still my 1/2 orange, then I wish us all the love in the universe. If not, I still wish us all the love in the universe. We've got a long way before we both reach our greatest goals, but somehow I know we'll make it. Years will go by and you'll go through your dusty yearbook. You'll read my ad and think back to all those wonderful moments we shared together. I love you, I really do.
Your Forever Loved,

Chief: you've done a great job, see you in Athletes Foot. P.S. Have any spare change? Love: A hundred dollar bill.

Hey Cutie, You're very important to me. You've always been there when I've needed you. May our friendship remain this way forever. I LOVE YOU! Love always,
Me.
P.S. Can I have your blue eyes?

To You Who Owns Boggie!
Boggie, you beast! Don't forget the $250, I'll be waiting. Act! Baby Act! You'll make it! You're my best Punk! So whip it down in hell with the 4th rail cause I can't be bothered with Surfin Birds!
